London, December 5.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland, and Yesterday one from France, with the following Advices.

Venice, November 16.

THE two Ships of War which some Days ago lay off this Port, came in hither on the 10th Instant. The Procurator Carlo Ruzzini, Ambassadour Extraordinary from this Republick to the Ottoman Port, being arrived here from Tenedos on board one of those Ships, is gone to the Old Lazaretto to perform Quarantain, which the Ships Crews are to do on board. Letters from Constantinople say, that Sig. Emo was preparing to make his Publick Entrance, which had been hitherto retarded only on account of the Ceremony of Circumcising the Grand Signior's Sons: That all Things were very quiet throughout the Ottoman Empire: Nevertheless due Care was taken in repairing decayed Works in fortified Places: That no Reduction had been made of the Troops, but that a good Number of Ships were laid up; and that the Plague at Constantinople was entirely ceased. Sig. Diello has caused his Equipage to be embarked, and himself is preparing to go on board very soon in order to relieve Sig. Mocenigo, Provéditeur-General of Dalmatia. The last Advices touching the Regulation of Limits in those Parts, give Room for believing those Limits are not only finished, but likewise that the Commissaries are gone to Albania. Our Magazines here are filling with all Diligence, to be in a readiness for equipping 50 Ships of the Line in case of Need. Advices from Brescia give an Account of Cardinal Barberigo's having received his Cap on the 5th Instant, with the usual Ceremonies: On which Occasion, the whole City was illuminated at Night, and other Actions of Joy were shewn by the Magistrates and People, to let their Bishop know how much they are delighted at his Elevation to the Cardinalship. That Cardinal is getting ready his Equipage to go to Rome for his Hat. The German Troops that marched some Time ago from Naples, are passed through the Ecclesiastical Territories, and are arrived in Quarters prepared for them near Mantua and Cremona.

Hague, Dec. 3. After the Ambassadour from Malta had his publick Audience of the Emperor, he was visited by the Dutch Envoy at Vienna: That Ambassadour waving particular Distinctions in Points of Ceremony between himself and Envoys Extraordinary, has gained the Approbation of the foreign Ministers of all Ranks. It is reported, the Ambassadour is highly pleased at the Marks of Favour and Esteem shewn by his Imperial Majesty to the Order of Malta, in respect not only of confirming its ancient Privileges, but likewise in granting new ones; and it is imagined by some Persons at Vienna, that a Maltese Minister will hereafter reside constantly at that Court, as there usually did one in Spain formerly, to look after the Affairs of the Order, with Reference to the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily.

It having been remarked against the Members of the Protestant Body at Ratisbon, that they declined presenting to the Roman Catholick Ministers at that Place Copies of the Memorial containing their Grievances, which they presented to the principal Imperial Commissary: the Reason to be given for that Step is, The Members thought it became them to let the Emperor be first served with it preferably to others; it being solely from his Imperial Benignity that the Protestants expect to be reinstated in their Privileges: 'tis therefore most natural to apply chiefly to him, as their supreme Judge, and high Arbitrator.

The Protestant Members have had under their Examination certain Complaints made by the Bishop of Worms, against the Magistrate and other under Officers in the City of that Name, whom he accuses of transgressing the Westphalian Treaty. But alas, how exceedingly wide from Truth are those Accusations! Nevertheless, could the least Tittle of any Contravention to that Treaty be fairly proved, the Evangelical Body would not desist one Moment from making the utmost Reparation. The Bishop's Complaints against the Protestants of his Bishoprick, are couched in most outrageous Terms, too unworthy to be born by any People, whatever; yet the Protestants, for the Sake of Peace, pass over it all, as the Bishop upon a different View does his Proofs of Facts, which he mentions the Protestants are guilty of. These Facts have been endeavoured to be traced, but without any Discovery as yet of Crime chargeable to the Protestants; nor indeed does any appear plainly, except in Certificates attested by artful and combining Priests, who for the Cause of temporal Interest, love to contend, how glaring and irrefragable soever be the Truths they oppose.

Paris, Dec. 7. Advices from Barcelona of the 27th past say, that the Troops were daily marching thither from different Cities of that Province: That the new Levies were on their Way to the Camp at Tarragona, and are to continue in Barracks there till such time as they are reviewed, which is to be when the respective Parties of them are arrived at the Camp: That some Letters from Alicante of the 18th past say, Orders were arrived there from Court for fitting out the Transport-Ships lately returned from Barcelona, which are to receive on board two Battalions of Walloon Troops, one of Irish, one of Sicily, and two Miquelet Regiments, all to be embarked for Ceuta, at which Place 20000 Men are already landed.

On the 2d Instant the King sent his Compliments to the Dutchess of Hanover by M. de Cavaler, one of the Gentlemen of the Bed Chamber, and To Day his Majesty intends to pay her a Visit. Don Lewis d'Acunba, the King of Portugal's Plenipotentiary Minister at the Congress of Cambray, arrived here some Days ago: The opening of that Congress is put off to the beginning of next Year: It is said, that this Minister will reside here afterwards in Quality of Ambassadour from the King of Portugal, in the room of the Conde de Rebeira, who set out lately for that Kingdom.

The Marechal de Villeroy's fine gilt Standish was stolen out of his Closet on the 2d Instant; he regrets the Loss of it, because it descended to him from his Father, the late Marechal.

On the 6th Instant a Jew named Joseph Levy, was broke upon the Wheel for having robbed and murdered another Jew and his Wife. The Turkish Ambassadour to this Court, Mehmet Effendi, arrived at Toulon the 23d past, where he keeps Quarantain without the City in the King's Garden.

The Price of Stock, Bank-Bills, and other Papers of that nature, are much at the same Rate they sold for the last Post.

Paris, Dec. 11. By Letters from Madrid of the 26th of November last, we have an Account that Don Juan de Carnajal, Colonel of a Regiment of Foot, arrived Express at the Escorial on the 21st, having been dis-dispatched by the Marquis de Lede with the Particulars of the late Victory obtained over the Moors, on the 15th of the said Month of November last. Upon this agreeable News, their Catholick Majesties and the Prince went to their Devotions at high Mass, and to Vespers; the next Day Te Deum was sung at the Royal Monastery of St. Laurence, their Majesties being present, and accompanied by the whole Court. Te Deum has also been sung in the Royal Chapel at the Palace; and great Demonstrations of Joy have been shewn quite through the City for three Days and three Nights successively.

By our last Advices from Rome we have received fresh Matter of Apprehension on account of the Pope's Illness, his Indisposition continues, and his Recovery seems doubtful; upon which our new Cardinal is making all possible Dispatch towards Italy.

The Parliament is expected to return hither in a short Time; and it is discoursed that some very considerable Changes will be made in the present Ministry.

It was generally reported last Night, that M. Law has desired Leave to retire to his Seat at Effiat in Auvergne; that Mess. Crozat and Bernard were to be at the Head of the Finances; upon these Rumours, the Actions fell from 5000 Livres to 4000, and the other Papers in Proportion.

London, December 5.

We have an Account, that on the 26th past in the Evening the Captain of His Majesty's Ship the Monk, took the Advantage of the High Water to get the Ship in through Yarmouth Roads, and brought her to an Anchor about two Miles to the South of the Peet; but on the 27th the Water increasing, and finding no Possibility of saving her, with the Opinion of the Pilots the Officers ran her ashore about a Mile to the South of Goltson, and have been since employed in saving her Stores and Provisions.
